Claim 71 has been canceled. Claims 68, 70, 72-73, and 77-79 have been amended herewith. Claim 68 has been amended to recite the transitional term "comprising" as is believed was suggested by the Examiner.¹ Claims 70, 72-73, and 77-79 have been amended to more clearly point out the invention. These amendments do not add new matter, nor will they require a new search, therefore, it is respectfully requested that the amendments to these claims be entered.

Withdrawal of Obviousness Rejections

Applicants appreciate the Examiner's acknowledgment of the withdrawals of the 103(a) obviousness-type double patenting rejections in the August 9, 2005 final rejection, and the Examiner's acknowledgment of no rejections repeated.

Double Patenting Rejections

The Examiner has rejected Claims 68-80 on the grounds of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejections as being unpatentable over claims 1-13 of US Patent No. 6,416,829 to Breining et al. or claims 1-20 of U.S. Patent No. 6,129,653 to Fredericks et al. or claims 1-21 of U.S. Patent No. 6,482,481 to Fredericks et al. or claims 1-5 of U.S. Patent No. 6,565,934 to Fredericks et al.

Applicants provide herewith, by separate submission, a Terminal Disclaimer under 37 C.F.R. §1.321, to obviate these rejections based on the nonstatutory double patenting ground.

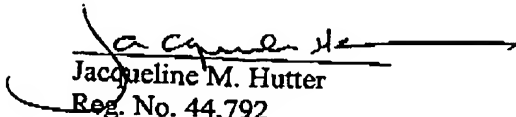

Conclusion

In view of the above Amendment and Remarks, as well as the accompanying Terminal Disclaimer, it is respectfully stated that the claims are in condition for allowance. Applicants respectfully seek notification of same.

¹ The Examiner suggested that applicants amend Claim 66, which recites "prepared from" to "comprising". Since Claim 66 was previously cancelled, it is believed that the Examiner is referring to Claim 68.
